

Can I Throw Kitchen Oil And Grease Into The Compost Bin?

No. Cooking oil and grease should be disposed in a regular trash container.

To do so, you may pour the oil into a sealable container such as an empty coffee can, then place the container in your regular household trash.

Learn More at wm.com

Can You Put Food-Soiled Paper In The Organics Cart?

Yes, you can! Uncoated paper such as napkins, paper towels, tissues and egg cartons are ok.

Learn More at wm.com

Can I toss used coffee filters and grounds into the organics cart?

Yes, you can! Paper coffee filters and all coffee grains are organic waste.

Learn More at wm.com

Can I Throw Used Tea Bags Into The Organics Cart?

Yes, you can! Tea bags, loose tea and coffee grains all are ok.

Learn More at wm.com

Can I Throw My Empty Milk And Orange Juice Containers In The Compost Bin?

No. They go into your recycling cart since they contain liners made of synthetic materials.

Learn More at wm.com

Can I Throw Diapers Into My Organics Cart?

No! Diapers go into your trash!

Learn More at wm.com

Can I Include Meat Scraps In My Compost Bin?

Yes! Meat, fish, and poultry can all go into the organics cart.

Learn More at wm.com

Can I Mix Food Waste In The Organics Cart?

Yes! They all are organic waste and go together into the organics cart.

Learn More at wm.com

Can I Mix Yard Waste In The Organics Cart?

Yes! They all are organic waste and go together into the organics cart.

Learn More at wm.com

Does Dairy, Like Eggs And Cheese Go Into The Organics Cart?

Yes, dairy is food waste!

Learn More at wm.com

Can Rotting Produce Go Into The Organics Cart?

Yes, all produce is food waste and compostable.

Learn More at wm.com

Can I Throw My Bagged Plastic Food Waste Into The Organics Cart?

No. Please throw plastic bags into the trash only.

Learn More at wm.com

